Dear old soup bone.

You write very good letters. we can see you riding with the mayor!

Day before yesterday I was sick
in bed and grandmother M. brought me some sweet peas and a little vase.
At the bottom of the vase is a little skunk!

Last night we played anagrams. Mom.
won. I came next and Daddy last. Daddy had the funniest and easiest words. For instance:
mum. did. and joke!

Yesterday was a good day for Charlotte. She came in to Daddy and said

"Mother wants a cracker." and then she paused, and said. "I want a cracker too." Then she paused again and said. "I want two crackers."

I've been writing plays, stories, and poems. My play was seven pages long!

Henry up and win this war, we
all want to see you!!

Love,
Giggly.
