

Dearest Stuck,

(I can't remember how to spell Gary, so hello, Stuck.) To the summer agreeing with you? Fine.

at the moment I'm in the immemorial bed with the inevitable cold. Dolly and I stepped off the train into a round of quietly wrong and dance for a friend who was married on Friday, so I've hardly had a chance to sit down, let alone write to my bridesmaid to be, I hope. i.e. you.

Will you save the 6, 7, 8 of August for me and come when I call? I don't know yet which it will be, probably the 8th, a Saturday. It all depends on where Brooks is going to be after the commission which He gets on the fifth of August. He will know the 2nd or 3rd week in July, if not earlier, I hope, so I'll let you know for sure when I know. But I would be helped if I could know if you could be here for any or all of these dates.

Please say yes, as I need your moral (?) support.

Got my grades today - sha, and they weren't just stupendous. I passed music, which was a relief, got a B in Latin - due to Miss Haig's flair for romance - C+ in Greek - the dog - and C in astronomy, the cat. How did you come out?

I must stop and take another doperin - how gay. So write soon. and I want to hear that you can come.

Love,

Kim
